Fuchsia

- Fuchsia
- Fuchsia hybrids
- Native to Central and South America, New Zealand, SE Asia
- Hanging basket plant, garden perennial (warm zones), minor potted flowering plant
- Requires cool temps for best growth.
- Limited to northern or coastal areas.
- A few cultivars exhibit heat tolerance and cold tolerance.
- Fuchsia ‘Honeysuckle’

Fuchsia

- Primarily cutting propagated.
- Apex always vegetative, flowers in leaf axils.
- Juvenile plants are obligate LD plants, mature plants day neutral.
- Grow at 68 day, 61 nights.
- 13 to 19 weeks production time.
- Sensitive to ethylene

Celosia

- Celosia, cockscomb
- Plume flower, wheat celosia
- Wheat celosia has narrow, long plumes
- Tropical Asia, Africa, Americas
- Bedding plant, field cut flower.

Celosia

- Facultative SD plant, use long days to prevent premature flowering.
- Warm season crop, grow best in warm temps.
- Flowers in 10-12 weeks in packs, 11-14 weeks in pots.