TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

Application Process

In order to be considered for temporary employment with NC State University you must complete a Temporary Employment Application for each vacancy. The application must be completed fully and submitted to the campus hiring department per instructions provided in the vacancy posting. Incomplete applications will not be processed. If you have questions about the application process contact the campus hiring department directly.

Please be sure to include your education, work experience, and job skills that are related to the vacancy for which you are applying. This information will be used to determine if you meet the basic qualifications for the position and to evaluate your competitiveness versus other job applicants.

Pay

Temporary employees are paid on a bi-weekly basis and must receive pay by direct deposit to a financial institution of their choice. The University follows the provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act for paying overtime as warranted to subject employees.

Appointment Length Restriction

The position for which you are applying is temporary and is based upon the needs of the hiring department. State policy restricts temporary employment to a maximum of 12 months. This applies to temporary employees working 20 hours or more per week on a recurring basis. Retirees and students as well as temporary employees who work only intermittently or who work fewer than 20 hours per week are not affected by the 12 month limit.

Proof of Employability

Federal law requires each new employee to complete the "Employee Information and Verification" section of the Federal Form I-9 and to submit certain original documents for examination in order to verify and certify identification and employment eligibility. This information must be provided to the hiring department on or before your third working day in the temporary position.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual’s national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-8155.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?
The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I-9 Be Used?
All employees, citizens, and noncitizens hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I-9.

Filling Out Form I-9

Section 1, Employee
This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen Nationals of the United States
Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification
The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer
For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I-9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employers may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

1. Document title;
2. Issuing authority;
3. Document number;
4. Expiration date, if any; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.
For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying Form I-9. Employers must reverify employment authorization of their employees on or before the work authorization expiration date recorded in Section 1 (if any). Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.

B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.

C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B; and:

1. Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);

2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C; and

3. Complete the signature block.

Note that for reverification purposes, employers have the option of completing a new Form I-9 instead of completing Section 3.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no associated filing fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below.

A message from NC State University Payroll Department

Welcome! Here are the two (2) things you need to do as a new employee to ensure the smooth processing of your paycheck

1) Set up your direct deposit. As a condition of employment, all individuals paid through the NC State University Human Resources System must participate in the Direct Deposit Program. To enroll in the Direct Deposit Program simply follow these easy steps:

- Go to the NCSU homepage (www.ncsu.edu)
- At the very top of the homepage, there is a link to "MyPack Portal"
- Log into the MyPack Portal, using your Unity ID* and password[instructions below]
- Click on “Employee Self Service”
- “Direct Deposit Enroll/Update” is located in the column titled “Payroll and Compensation” on the “Employee Self Service” page
- Enter your banking information here, being careful to enter the numbers correctly. An error will result in a delay in you receiving your paycheck.

2) File your withholding tax forms on line. The default tax setting for all new employees is marital status = single with zero personal allowances claimed. If you wish to claim something other than “Single, Zero”, you need to complete a new W-4 and/or NC-4 form. To file new forms on line, simply follow these steps:

- While still in the “Payroll and Compensation” section on the “Employee Self Service” tab of the MyPack Portal:
- Select the “NC4/W4 Tax Application”
- From this page, you can view your current Federal and State Income Tax withholding status, make changes to one or both, and submit them electronically
- You can even print out a copy of what you submitted

*Unity ID and  Password

* Your Unity ID is usually the first initial of your first name, the first initial of your middle name and the first six letters of your last name, all in lowercase. If your last name has less than six letters use your full last name. John B Smith would be jbsmith.

Your start up password is the last four digits or your nine digit employee ID number followed by the two digit month and two digit day of your birthday. You will be instructed to change your password the first time you log in.

If you have problems logging into the MyPack Portal, please contact the NC State Help Desk at 515-4357.

For further information on Employee Self Service, a list of paydays, and other helpful information please visit the University Payroll website: www.ncsu.edu/hr/payroll/
